Ultimate Kindness

What greater proof could God have given of his mercy than by taking upon himself that which needed mercy? Where is there such fullness of loving-kindness as in the fact that the Word of God became perishable like the grass for our sakes?

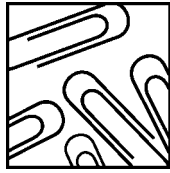

Let man infer from [Christmas] how much God cares for him. The humanity of God shows the greatness of his kindness.

- Bernard of Clairvaux (1090-1153)

Mission Statement: We are called by God to follow Christ's example and teachings by worshipping, witnessing, learning, supporting one another, and reaching out to others.

Vision Statement: Christ Lutheran Church will be a congregation of strong personal relationships between members. We will continue to serve our community and reach out to our neighbors with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

“Thanksgiving? Advent? Christmas? New Year’s?... and a Special Thank You”

Dear Friends in Christ,

This time of year we begin the excitement of the coming holiday season: the multitude of days to be thankful, to prepare to celebrate the birthday of Jesus, and to enter both a new Church year AND a new calendar year. They all come together so quickly, not to mention on the fast heels of Halloween, that it’s impossible sometimes to TRULY observe them all. We are bombarded all year long with shopping advertisements that simply want us to go out and buy as often as we can. This season in our lives steps that up quite a bit.

One online definition of “advent” is “the coming or arrival, especially of something extremely important.” I was curious about that definition, because I regularly get chastised by folks for encouraging us to experience the joy of waiting for the celebration of Christmas. Just as so many grumble about our world’s quick rush through Thanksgiving and onto Christmas and New Year’s, I grumble that we seem to prefer bypassing the pregnancy of Jesus – as well as the time to ponder what it really means to wait for Jesus to come again and free our world for eternal life.

I cherish the days I waited for my sons to be born...and a Savior about to come among us is that joy times eternal. So pause and reflect these Holy Days (origin of “holidays”) on how much Jesus means to you and why his coming at Christmas brings you joy. Live that joy in ALL you do. Focus on the eternal joy that only Jesus can bring. Bring joy to others who seem to suffer more this time of year than celebrate.

Speaking of joy, I also write to say “thank you and God bless you” to our office manager, Lorei Comerer. Lorei is leaving her position here at Christ Church the day before Thanksgiving this year. I cannot adequately say how much her partnership in ministry has meant to me and the ministry of our congregation. Lorei, you are a faithful co-worker in the Gospel, and I wish you all the best.

As Christians together wherever we worship and serve, may Jesus' light shine brightly in our comings and goings, our celebrations and our changes, and into this brand new year upon us. Let us continue to serve as Jesus taught us. Blessed Thanksgiving, Joyful Advent, Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year to you all!

See you in church?

“Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near.”

--Philippians 4:4-5

Your partner in mission and ministry,

PASTOR PAT ☺

God's love and blessings to the family of Lucille Bruss, who joined the saints triumphant on October 17, 2014. We mourn with Joyce & Marlin Frederick and all the family. Pastor Pat officiated Lucille's graveside service on October 31, at Twin Hills Memorial Park, Muncy.

God's love and blessings to the family of Robert Cranston Miller of Horseheads, New York. Bob was a dear friend and mentor to Pastor Pat, and father to her best friend, Wendy. Pastor Pat officiated Bob's service in Horseheads on Monday, October 27, at the Barber Funeral Home.

Lord, you send us loved ones to walk this journey of life and faith together. Receive Lucille and Bob into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and bring them with all your saints to your glorious kingdom. Comfort all who loved them. Help their loved ones and friends to feel your Spirit surround and assure them for the days, weeks, and years ahead. Amen.

It is a joy to welcome Eleanor Joann Auman, Allison Diane Auman, and Sarah Elaine Auman to the family of Christ's Church through the sacrament of Holy Baptism. Their mother, Amy Auman, and their baptismal sponsor, Penny Coup, joined them at the font on All Saints Sunday, November 2, 2014. Welcome, girls! We're excited to walk your journey of faith with you!

To the glory of God and in loving memory of Lee Franklin Yost, we dedicated a new NRSV pulpit Bible on All Saints Sunday, November 2, 2014. Lee faithfully worshipped and grew in God's Word with us all the days of his life. His witness to our Loving God lives on in the Word we continue to hear from scripture every time we worship.

Aunt Phoebe's Blessings to consider a support group for those in need of a place to just talk – and unload struggles: On Monday, November 17, Aunt Phoebe's Blessings met at noon with Marty Sinopoli (pronounced sin AH poe lee) from Center of Hope (the counselor who uses our church to counsel others) to consider how we might accomplish this. Keep this potential new ministry in your prayers.

Thank you to everyone that attended the Sunday brunch to celebrate Seth's and my upcoming wedding. We appreciate everyone's love and support as we celebrate this special milestone in our relationship. I am very lucky to have such a caring church family. God bless,

- Lindsay Byers (soon to be Tanner!)

Thank you for the wonderful support you provide to the Milton community.

- Greg Valiquette

Joyce and Marlin Frederick, along with all our family, thank you for your kindness and love during the years we have cared for our beloved mother and grandmother, Lucille Bruss. Your cards, phone calls, and visits meant so very much. Special thanks to Rose Handy, Nancy Mensch, and Pastor Pat for your communion visits. Mother enjoyed all of you. God bless our Christ Church family.

On Sunday, September 7th, my husband and I joined you for a lovely outdoor service. We were blessed by Rev. Pittsnogle's sermon, the beautiful solo, and the especially warm welcome from the Christ Church family. And then we were fed this most amazing lunch! Our cups truly overflowed. In His Name,

- Bill and Caye Brubaker

Thrivent Choice

Thank you to Pastor Pat and James Reaser for recently designating your Thrivent Choice Dollars to Christ Church. We appreciate your gifts!

For those who are Thrivent members and wish to designate Christ Church in your next opportunity for giving, talk with your Thrivent representative about how you can make that happen. Pastor Pat would be willing to help you with that, too – phone 570-742-7473, or see her at Church. Thank you!

Bible Study & Christian Education Opportunities

- Confirmation w/mentors will meet on December 14, 5-7:30 p.m., @ Christ Church.
- Bible Buddies is our youth group for children ages 4 through 5th grade, and it meets at Christ Church on the second Friday of each month, September through March. There is a meal provided for the children and adult helpers, followed by a story and activity based on the theme for the evening. This year we are studying “Kids in God’s Word.” Younger children are most welcome, too, with a parent or other responsible adult. We meet from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. December’s meeting will be December 12 and January’s meeting will be January 9!

Christian Education News

By Glen Dewire, Chairperson

Bible Study: Paul and his Ministry, the evening group will meet on the following dates during December and January. We meet at 6:30 p.m. in the church parlor. All are welcome! Come and join us even if you haven't been involved before.

Wednesday, December 3 – Philemon, 1 & 2 Thessalonians

Wednesday, December 17 – Galatians, 1 & 2 Corinthians

Wednesday, January 7 – Philippians, Romans

Wednesday, January 21 – Colossians, Ephesians

Wednesday, February 4 – Bringing it all together

Please check the weekly Worship bulletin and upcoming newsletters for times and dates regarding the daytime group meeting on Paul and his ministry.

Book Study: Please check the sign-up sheet and the book available for preview in the narthex for the upcoming book study, Soul Feast. The first meeting of the study group will be held Friday, January 16 at 6:30 p.m. in the church parlor. Future meeting times, dates, and locations after that will be determined by participants at the first meeting. There is no cost to participants for the book. Please sign up by Sunday, January 4,

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

so that books may be ordered in time for the first meeting.

Angel Tree

Be an angel and participate in our ministry to support the Salvation Army's drive to provide Christmas cheer to needy children. Take a tag or two from the tree, and purchase the requested toy or a similar one. Substitute if the item is too costly. Gifts should not be wrapped. Simply return item(s) to the church by December 10th with the original tag attached, and place in box provided near the Angel Tree. If you have any questions, please call Mae Jones @ 570-742-7570.

Thank You, Ruth!

After many years of service, Ruth Greenly will be retiring at the end of 2014 as financial secretary. Staff Support is looking for a volunteer to assume this role. If you are interested, please contact Penny Ulmer, who can provide more information about the position. This position requires approximately 2-1/2 hours each week.

From the Office Manager

I write this to tell those of you who don't already know that as of the end of November, 2014, I have resigned as Office Manager due to circumstances and happenings within the Church which caused me to be less and less satisfied. My last day will be Wednesday, November 26. I know that God has plans for me; I just don't know what they are yet!

I cherish the friendships "we've" made in the 7-1/2 years I've been at Christ Church. There were and are many blessings.

May you have a blessed Christmas and a happy, healthy new year!

Yours In Christ,
Lorei Comerer

Helping Others

- Campbell's Soup labels and Labels for Education for the Navajo Lutheran Mission project
- Can tabs for Ronald McDonald House
- Pennies for Social Ministry projects
- Recycling caps (box located to left of narthex door) – Update: Currently, we have recycled (and kept out of landfills) 978 pounds of plastic caps! That's a LOT of caps! Keep the recycling for God's creation going!!!!

Little Needs... Little Things... Little Ways You Can Help

The church needs these items on a regular basis. If you can provide any of them, THANK YOU!

- Paper napkins
- Boxes of tissues
- Dishwashing soap for kitchen and sacristy
- Cascade powder for the kitchen dishwasher
- Gallon-size ziploc plastic bags
- Aluminum foil
- Sunday School snacks and breakfast items
- Meal preparation for our monthly Bible Buddies youth group!
  - We truly DO have children who come to Bible Buddies that have trouble getting a meal at home. Your contribution WILL feed others who have trouble putting food on the table.
- Check out the sign-up sheets in the narthex for more ways you can offer your time and talents!

ELCA News

Why not consider giving a needy family an animal for Christmas this year? You can help folks rise from the limits of poverty into a farming business that will help them provide food, family income, and an opportunity to pass on offspring to other needy families. Contact the ELCA Good Gifts program at 1-800-638-3522 or access the program on the web at <https://community.elca.org/ELCAGoodGifts>

If you want something to wrap to go along with your gift – try giving a package of bacon when you purchase a gift of pigs, for example; a certificate for chicken McNuggets when you purchase chickens – or even a stuffed animal that depicts the one you purchase – be creative! You can bless someone you love while helping those most in need receive life-giving resources!

Christmas Traditions Around the Globe

Although Americans celebrate the holiday with candlelight services, piles of gifts, large feasts, lights and trees, people in other countries mark Jesus' birth in many interesting ways:

- ❖ Nine days before Christmas in Mexico, Las Posadas processions reenact Joseph and Mary's search for a place to stay in Bethlehem.
- ❖ Instead of decorating trees, Italians place fruit on small wooden pyramids.
- ❖ On Christmas Eve, the streets of Caracas, Venezuela, are blocked off so people can roller skate to church.
- ❖ Ukrainian Christmas trees often feature an artificial spider and web. According to a folk tale, a poor woman who couldn't afford decorations awoke one Christmas morning to find that spiders had "trimmed" her children's trees with delicate webs.
- ❖ In Brazil, the gift-bringer is known as Papai Noel (Father Noel), who lives in Greenland, according to legend. When he arrives in Brazil, he wears silk clothing because of the summer heat.
- ❖ It's considered bad etiquette to send red Christmas cards in Japan because funeral notices are customarily printed in red.

Upside down?

Even amid increased secularization, God makes the core Christmas message known. Take, for example, the story of a "winter pageant" a mother attended at her son's grade school. Songs of reindeer, snow and Santa included one titled "Christmas Love," in which the youngest performers held up letters as the song progressed: "C," "H," etc.

When a little girl unknowingly held her “M” upside down, the older kids snickered and the adult audience smiled acceptingly. But as the song drew to a close and all the letters were revealed, surprised recognition struck the Christians in the room.

‘CHRISTWAS LOVE,” read the string of student-borne letters. God’s truth had penetrated the human clutter and confusion around Christmas – as it has power to do throughout our lives: “Christ was love.” And of course, he still is.

Thoughts to ponder...

Jesus did not come to make God’s love possible, but to make
God’s love visible.

- Author unknown

Maybe Christmas {the Grinch} thought, doesn’t come from a store.

- Dr. Seuss

Don’t let your happiness depend on something you may lose.

- C.S. Lewis

In the depth of every mystery, Jesus put a Face.
